

THANKS

Heavenly Father, help me appreciate Your many blessings every day.

Let me count them one by one with a grateful heart.

Your light surrounds me.

Your love enfolds me, for You gave Your only Son that I and many might be saved.

Your power protects me.

Your presence watches over me.

Wherever I am, You are, and all is well.

I arose this morning and I could walk.

I opened my eyes and I could see.

I reached for food and it was there to nourish and enjoy.

I took a breath of fresh air.

I drank a glass of refreshing water and beheld the beauty of Your creations.

So very many are Your blessings, Lord God. Who can possibly count them all? Thank You, Jehovah.

In the precious, holy name of Jesus, who is a most welcome guest in my heart, amen.
